Support BSWA

The Buddhist Society of Western Australia (BSWA) offers membership to anyone who wishes to support the Society's aims of encouraging the teaching, practice and realization of Buddhist principles, and helping to make these teachings and practices available to the general public.

As a member of the BSWA you receive:

- ⇒ Upon request, the BSWA quarterly newsletter the Enlightened Times, by postal mail or email
- ⇒ Borrowing rights for books and CDs from the BSWA library's extensive Dhamma collection
- ⇒ Full members: Priority for places at the BSWA 9 Day Retreats at Jhana Grove Meditation Retreat Centre in Serpentine
- ⇒ Good karma by supporting the BSWA, which provides Buddhist teachings free of charge locally and internationally via its acclaimed website and YouTube channel, and runs two monasteries, as well as a purpose built meditation retreat centre

All members:

- ⇒ Must abide by the Constitution of the Society, Copies are in the Library and on the BSWA website
- ⇒ Receive our bulletins
- ⇒ Have their Membership application endorsed by the BSWA Committee
- ⇒ Receive a Membership card

Associate, Full or Youth Membership

Many new members start with an Associate Membership as they first begin to learn and practice Buddhism. We welcome Buddhists and non-Buddhists alike to support the Society by applying for this membership.

Youth Membership is free of charge to those under 18 years of age.

Full Membership is open to practicing Buddhists who have taken the Three Refuges and the Five Precepts with a delegated Sangha. If you are unable to do so, you may take the precepts online at <https://bswa.org/membership/>. Once you have taken the precepts, please inform the Membership Secretary.

Fully Paid Membership is available for both Associate and Full members for the equivalent of 20 years membership and will save you having to renew in this lifetime!

Inform the Membership Secretary if you have taken the 5 Precepts Online.

Email: asec@bswa.org

Become a Member

The same annual fee of $50 applies to both Associate and Full membership; an Associate membership can be upgraded to Full at any time at no extra cost.

Only Full members have voting rights and are eligible to be office bearers of the Society.

Please keep your personal and contact details up to date

<https://bswa.org/membership/>

How do I apply?

You may apply for Youth or Associate Membership by completing Part A, B & C on page 1 of the Membership Form.

For Full Membership, we need your Membership Application Form to be endorsed by our Spiritual Director, Ajahn Brahm, Abbott of Dhammasara Monastery, or their representative Sangha (please approach them in person for their signature).

A membership form is required for all types of membership, including upgrading from Associate to Full.

Scan and email, or post the completed form to the BSWA at PO Box 3135, Yokine WA 6060, Australia. Alternatively, you can hand in the completed form at one of the BSWA centres.
